PC:

This application is directed against an order passed by the learned trial Judge, under sectoin 156 (3) of the Criminal Procedure Code. No injury is caused to the petitioner by mere direction to investigate a complaint fileld under section 200. Adequate opportunities are available to the petitioner to claim discharge in the event of the learned Magistrate deciding to take up the matter after report of the police is received. At present there is no case for interference. Application dismissed.
